The Day I got Captain PBJ.

One day there was a little girl named Sarah. She got a hamster named Peanut Butter. He drank super power stuff and turned into Captain PBJ!

Captain PBJ went to fight Bionic Bunny Buger. Bionic Bunny Buger went to take Captain PBJ powers but Captain PBJ was stronger than a ramp, faster than a hamster wheel, and able to leap tall buildings without dropping pellets. Bionic Bunny Buger did not give up. He crawled in his bunny blazer 6 thousand and attacked Captain PBJ! PBJ got in his ball blazer and ran over Bionic Bunny Buger. Then PBJ pushed the robo claws button, grabbed Bionic Bunny Buger and took him to jail and saved his powers. Sarah was so proud!

pictures and then we practiced the fire drill and we hole punched cards and Mrs. Zink told us about her family. And Mrs. Zink asked us about our summer vacation and all of us told each other about ourself. And we had

The best part was playing Outside with my friend.

My Cat Tuna

My pet's name is Tuna. She is a kitten and she is 3 months old and has 1 brother and 1 sister. She is black and white and is very wild and loves to play with string and her toy mouse. She also plays with her brother and sister. Her brother's name is Chip and her sister's name is Nilla. They all came from my sister's third cat.

My cat does 3 funny things. She chases her own tail and her brother and sister's tails too. She climbs on everything and falls off, and she pounces on my feet and her mom's tail.

Tuna is very special to me because she is my best friend. She is very sweet and lovable and my friend forever.

Title: If I had 1 million dollars I would...

If I had 1 million dollars I would pay off my bills then I would use the rest of my money I have left over and buy all different sorts of things like a laptop, a brand new car, I would like to go to some concerts far away, buy new shoes, new clothes, new baby puppies then I would have to buy lots of dog food that costs lots of money. It is expensive for puppy chow beautiful brand. I also want to live in a big house with a pool and a hot tub and 4 stories on the beach in North Carolina Outer Banks. That's what I would do with 1 million dollars in my life in Ohio.

Title: If I had a million dollars I would

If I had a million dollars I would save it for something AWESOME like a Razor scooter or a dirt bike or maybe something really, really cool. Plus I would be rich and I would love to be rich. Last of all I think that if I had a million dollars I would probably just save it cause I think money is really cool. If I really did have a million dollars buy cool things for the school like a hot tub and an in ground pool.
